

SUPPORTING RESOURCES

Suicide Prevention and Postvention: an interdisciplinary approach

Guidelines:

Suicide prevention and first aid: A resource for GPs
<https://gpmhsc.org.au/guidelinessection/index/fd093e3b-ceff-4e0d-81c0-b04dfba936d1/suicide-prevention-and-first-aid>

After suicide: A resource for GPs
<https://gpmhsc.org.au/guidelinessection/index/dba12e0b-6816-40bc-a315-99a327fa3b0e/after-suicide>

Ethical guidelines for psychologists: Ethical guidelines relating to clients at risk of suicide (members only)
<https://www.psychology.org.au/for-members/resource-finder/resources/ethics/Ethical-guidelines-clients-risk-of-suicide>

Journals:

BMJ paper: Can we usefully stratify patients according to suicide risk? Conjoint Professor Matthew Michael Large, Clinical Associate Professor Christopher James Ryan, Conjoint Professor Gregory Carter, Professor Nav Kapur
<https://www.bmjjournals.org/content/359/bmj.j4627>

MJA paper: Suicide Risk Assessment: where are we now? Christopher J Ryan and Matthew M Large <https://www.mja.com.au/journal/2013/198/9/suicide-risk-assessment-where-are-we-now>

Online training:

Online training program: Suicide prevention: A practitioner's guide
<https://www.psychology.org.au/Event/20286>